Letham Nights #13

Not yer ordinary Letham Nights this one....

Just imagine: it's nearly midsummer. The evenings are balmy and light and spirits are high. Puck has administered his magic potion and you are feeling not just dreamy but a little daring...

*...After all, it's The Loveliest Night of the Year!

Put on your best bib and tucker and be a night wanderer to Letham Nights. Burgers, strawberries, a performance from local young people who have been taking part in drama and music workshops, an open-mic session compered by comedian Bruce Devlin. And then... the Grand Finale - the return of another great Letham Nights favourite, highly acclaimed Dundee band Luva Anna.

Get with the Programme!

Do it in a Day Performance

7pm

Following an exciting day of creating and rehearsing, the Do it in a Day workshop participants will start the evening entertainment with a performance of their production. We don't know what to expect but we do know that at Letham Nights, talent will out....!!

Grubsteaks...

6-9pm

To add to the party atmosphere, food will be available for the first time at Letham Nights. Meat and veggie burgers from Pillars of Hercules and FREE strawberries from Muddy Boots.

Open Mic Session with Bruce Devlin

8-9.30pm

So have you got any hidden talents yourself? Do you have a burning desire to perform. If so, here is your big chance. If you would like to perform at the open mic session, please contact Richard@hoolet.com who is putting together the programme for this part of the evening. And your comper for the evening will be the talented comedian Bruce Devlin.

And then.....

10pm

Returning for their second visit to Letham Nights, Luva Anna are a highly accomplished and exciting band from Dundee, playing their own unique brand of high energy music with its folk-tinged 4-part harmonies and catchy melodies and riffs. Put on your dancing shoes - you will need them!
