

Do it in a day!

Performance workshop ~ Saturday 19th June

Want to perform? Create a new piece of theatre with drama and music professionals? Starting at 10am, with theatre skills, music and your imagination, you will devise a piece of theatre that you will perform at 7pm the same day!

If you have an instrument bring it.

If you don't play an instrument and love music this is for you too.

No Experience Necessary 12 to 21 year olds

This workshop is FREE

What will you do in the day...

10am to 12.30pm workshops... Lunch... 1.30pm to 5pm workshops and rehearsals.... Tea.... 7pm performance.... to kick off...

Letham Nights special celebration, the 'Loveliest Night of the Year'

Workshops leaders...

Fiona Miller, Director & Theatre Practitioner

Fiona is a highly experienced and versatile artistic director, who designs and devises new drama projects across the UK. She is also:

Artistic Director, Tricky Hat Productions.

Creative Partner & Lead Artist, National Theatre of Scotland.

Associate Artist, Cumbernauld Theatre.

Mick Slaven, Musician

A talented and versatile musician with a wealth of experience in composing, teaching, recording and performing.

He has also performed and recorded with:

Deacon Blue, Justin Curry, Del Amitri, Leopards, Eddi Reader and many more.

To book your free place please contact

lethamnights@btinternet.com

01337 810370 or 07802 436391

Letham Nights would like to thank Fife Council for the generous support from Celebrating Fife 2010